Sir,

SUB: ADMINISTRATION REPORT - Highways Department - 1951-52 - Supply of a printed copy to the President, District Board, South Kanara - regarding -

REF: ----

1/ A printed copy of the Administration Report for the year 1951-52 was supplied to the President, District Board, South Kanara under registered book post and he was requested to acknowledge its receipt. The President, District Board, in reply stated that the book was not received by him. Thereupon, the Superintendent of Post Offices, Egmore was addressed to trace out the book and it was intimated by him that the article was delivered to the Superintendent, of the District Board Office by name Sri V.S.Chagrla, which information was also conveyed to the President, District Board for tracing out the book and for his acknowledgment. He has now replied that the Administration Report is not readily traceable in his Office and has requested that a copy may be furnished to him.

2/ The number of copies supplied to this Office is very limited and they have all been distributed. No spare copy is available for supply to him. I therefore, request that the Controller of Stationery and Printing, Madras may be asked to supply him a cop of the report on payment of its cost by the District Board.

3/ The President, District Board is also being requested to recover the cost of the book from the Superintendent of the Dist Board Office Sri V.S.Chagala and credit the amount to the state funds.
